Gambel's Quail 25"x19"

Also known as the Desert Quail. This strutting bird is easily spotted because of its distinctive top-knot that curves forward over the bill. The handsome print features a small covey in a natural desert setting.

Ringtail 18"x12"

Arizona's official state mammal. This curious little animal is also referred to as a Ring-Tailed Cat or a Civit Cat. The colorful print finds the Ringtail in its element; climbing on a dry rocky outcrop and hot on the trail of dinner—a fat tasty beetle.

Roadrunner 25"x19"

The state bird of New Mexico, the Roadrunner is also the most distinctive and widely-recognized of all Southwestern birds. This print allows for close scrutiny of two adult birds and a chick as they forage near a prickly pear cactus.
